

SPOTLIGHT:

NORZAWATIL AMALI ALIAS

Principal Assistant Secretary & KPI Officer to the Minister
Ministry of Agriculture and Agro-based Industry

“I strongly recommended EMAS programs offered by FSPPP, especially to those who are working in the public sector...”

Norzawatil decided to further her study at masters level seven years after serving in the public sector for both professional and personal reasons. For Norzawatil, the EMAS program offered a combination of interesting and relevant subjects to her career as a Diplomatic and Administrative Officer. Further, “the lecturers who thought the subjects are knowledgeable, highly experienced and very welcoming,” says Norzawatil.

As a sponsored student under the JPA scholarship, being able to successfully complete her masters within a two year period, is the utmost achievement in her life. “Masters degree from the EMAS program is very precious and useful to me,” says Norzawatil. Already now, Norzawatil has visioned herself as a dedicated, highly disciplined and knowledgeable PTD officer in the future.

From her personal experience going through the EMAS program, Norzawatil says, “I strongly recommend EMAS programs offered by FSPPP, especially to those who are working in the public sector, and want to further their study in the area of ‘public policy’, ‘administration’, ‘management’ and ‘human resource’.”